

Mother's Day Brunch Guide

For the special mother in your life,

Mother's Day Brunch Guide

She deserves to be treated like a queen!

We all know how special the mothers in our lives are, so we need to do something nice for them. I suggest we surprise them with a nice brunch made by you. My favorite kinds of gifts to receive are the ones the person has made. What matters the most to me is the thought and effort put into it.

In this guide, I will provide you with a list of recipes that you can choose from depending on what you think the mother in your life would like. Don't forget to add some flowers (from your garden or store bought) and if you can print out a menu for her, it will be a nice little detail that she won't forget.

Strawberry Lemonade <https://wp.me/pc0thW-9>

You can make a frittata with fresh baked bread and blueberry jam. Another option could be; frittata, a slice of bread with pesto, fresh strawberry lemonade and coconut cookies. It does not have to be fancy, believe me when I tell you that anything you make she will appreciate and love. Choose a few options that you think she will enjoy, get the ingredients and be a chef for a day! (wink wink)

I hope you and the people around you enjoy this special day. We all have so much to be thankful for. If you have lost your mother, my heart goes out to you. I am sure you cherish many memories with her. I am sending you a big virtual hug.

“Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate”.
Proverbs 31:31

“Her children rise up and called her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all.”
Proverbs 31:28-29

Happy Mother's Day, Y Buen Provecho!
